ROBERT MACKIE of SCOTLAND, established in 1845, has a long history of manufacturing knitted hats, scarves, and gloves for ladies, gents and children. Plain, ribs, jacquard, and stripes are all available and with our extensive range of machinery we can manufacture a very wide variety of product.

In addition to our own range of products we also manufacture to our customers own design. In this instance there is a minimum order quantity per style and this can be delivered over several colourways. The minimum order quantity varies from style to style dependent on various technical factors.

Colours may vary slightly from the image in this brochure.
